An outstanding and large scale Italian 18th century giltwood, gilt metal and crystal Genovese chandelier. The chandelier is centered by a solid bottom crystal ball below a richly carved acorn finial and foliate movements.

Branching out from the fluted giltwood central support are beautifully scrolled gilt metal arms and floral candle cups adorned with cut crystal prisms, attached by striking swaging floral garlands. Leading up the most decorative and impressively carved giltwood central fut are two tier of gilt metal sprays with cut crystals and prisms with a giltwood foliate top cap.
