A unique and impressive Italian 18th century Louis XIV Period Walnut, bone, and ormolu inlaid commode. The bombée shaped three drawer chest is raised by elegant curved legs below the most decorative scalloped shaped frieze with a beautiful delicate inlaid scrolled bone fillet. Each drawer is centered by a lovely richly chased pierced ormolu keyhole escutcheon and decorated with wonderful delicately inlaid interlocking bone fillets. Flanking the drawers are exceptional curved movements while the sides and top showcase the stunning wood grain also decorated with most decorative finely inlaid bone fillets.
