A stunning and most impressive Italian 18th century Louis XV period giltwood and Alabastro Fiorito marble console. The freestanding console is raised by beautiful elegant cabriole legs with fine scrolled feet and lovely reeded and richly carved blooming flowers. Each leg is connected by a striking X shaped stretcher with additional most decorative carvings and a remarkable finely carved central seashell reserve. Above each leg are unique scrolled carved foliate elements flanking the exceptional pierced scalloped shaped frieze with gadroon like movements and centered by an additional beautiful seashell reserve. Above is the original veneered Alabastro Fiorito marble top showcasing the stunning marble veins. All original gilding throughout.
