A wonderful Italian 18th century Louis XV period walnut side table from the Veneto region. The table is raised by handsome richly carved square cabriole legs below the straight frieze. At the frieze is one drawer at the front with a bronze keyhole escutcheon, fitted fleur de lys paper lining and all original hardware. The sides also display elegant carved recessed panels. The impressive scalloped shaped top with concave front and back is centered by a wonderful walnut and tulipwood inlaid reserve. All original warm patina throughout.
