A high quality and very handsome Italian 18th century Louis XV st. Giltwood, patinated Wood, and Sienna marble console, from Naples. This beautiful freestanding console with its original Gilt and Sienna marble top is raised by four cabriole legs supported on scallop shaped mottled edge Giltwood feet. Each leg is tastefully decorated by acanthus leaf carvings at the base and top caps with a patinated background. The arbalest shaped front apron is decorated with foliate designs, Giltwood bands, and a scallop shaped central reserve. The side aprons are decorated similarly as the front apron with their Giltwood band, scallop shaped central reserve, and patinated background.

The beautiful Sienna marble top displays a mottled edge and adds a wonderful shade that pairs beautifully with the finishes throughout.
