A beautiful Italian 18th century Louis XVI period patinated, giltwood, black Belgian and Brèche Blanche marble console from Tuscany. The freestanding console is raised by elegant circular tapered fluted legs with fine topie shaped feet below giltwood flutes, swaging garlands, and richly carved top caps. The apron displays superb scrolled foliate Rinceau shaped giltwood designs with large acanthus leaves and griffins centering a handsome bearded satyr framed within a mottled giltwood band. The sides display additional richly carved scrolled foliate designs with charming seashells. Above a mottled foliate giltwood band is the original thick marble top with a black Belgian marble center framed within a veneered Brèche Blanche marble border. All original gilt and patina throughout.
