An exquisite and extremely elegant Italian 18th century Louis XVI period giltwood, polychrome, and white Carrara marble console. The freestanding console is raised by circular tapered fluted legs with fine topie shaped feet with acanthus leaves and a lovely beaded and foliate design at the top. Above each leg are richly carved block rosettes flanking the beautiful straight apron decorated with striking unique pierced rosettes within beaded bands centering the superb central reserve with lovely a gardener's hat amidst foliage and a polychrome bagpipe. Above is the original white Carrara marble top.
