A beautiful and very elegant Italian 18th century Louis XVI period patinated and giltwood Trumeau with sconces and display shelves. The trumeau mirror retains its original mirror plate framed within a most decorative mottled giltwood band with lovely foliate and twisted ribbon carved bands. At the base and at each side are charming and intricately detailed two arm sconces with a fluted urn shaped body, reeded and foliate designs, and elegantly scrolled arms leading to richly carved floral candle cups. At the center of the charming olive colored patinated wood frame are removable giltwood display shelves with exceptional finely detailed acanthus leaves and an acorn finial below a lovely Coeur de Rai band. Above are outstanding intricately carved tied bouquets of flowers swaging from a rosette and centering the superb urn shaped reserve amidst luxuriant scrolled Rinceau shaped movements and all below the mottled top crown with a beautiful dentil design. All original gilt and patina throughout.
