An elegant Italian 18th century Louis XVI period Walnut, Burl Walnut, and Tulipwood commode. The four door chest is raised by fine square tapered legs below the straight frieze. At the center are four drawers each decorated with an intricately inlaid central urn with flowers and ormolu keyhole escutcheons. Each drawer displays most decorative Burl Walnut panels framed within Tulipwood fillets and with raised borders. Each side also displays charming finely detailed urns where above is a central theatrical reserve of charming music instruments and a mask amidst foliate movements set on a warm Walnut reserve and quarter veneered background accentuating the beautiful warm walnut grain.
