A beautiful and high quality Italian 18th century Louis XVI st. giltwood and Alabastro Cotognino console. The freestanding console is raised by unique and extremely decorative block rosette feet below baluster shaped acanthus leaf carvings and striking square tapered fluted legs with fine mottled designs and charming floral reserves. Above each leg are handsome lion heads holding rings with tassels in their mouths. The apron displays an exceptional carved plaque with a faun on a hammered background amidst luxuriant scrolled foliate designs and lovely leaves also repeated at the sides. Above is the original fitted Alabastro Cotognino top framed within a fine mottled border.
