A handsome and most decorative Italian 18th century Louis XVI st. Pine, Walnut and Brass chest. The wonderful four drawer chest is raised on scalloped supports below a mottled straight frieze. Each of the four drawers retain their original Brass keyhole escutcheons and pulls, and are decorated with Walnut and Pine fillets in a decorative pattern. Each side of the chest has a recessed carved and framed quarter veneered panel showcasing the stunning wood grain. Above is the elegant Walnut top displaying a warm and rich patina with a mottled edge.
