A stunning and finely detailed Italian 18th century Neo-Classical st. Louis XVI Period patinated Wood, Giltwood, and Ancient Green marble. This beautiful freestanding demi lune console with its original marble top, gilding, and patination is raised on four Giltwood tapered fluted legs with block feet and acanthus leaf base and top caps. The three straight aprons between each leg have Giltwood bands above and below wonderfully carved palmette designs set on a patinated Wood background. The attractive Ancient Green marble top has an array of small scale veneers along the edge and follows the shape of the console.
