A sensational and extremely high quality Italian 18th century patinated wood, giltwood and etched mirror trumeau, from Turino. The palatially scaled mirror is raised by a fine mottled base with elegant giltwood fluted designs.

The original central mirror plate is framed within a mottled band with a lovely scalloped shape and a beautiful richly carved foliate giltwood band with striking scrolled floral movements and rosettes at each corner. Leading up each side are all the original stunning intricately etched mirror plates with elegant designs of charming tied bows with quivers, flags with spears, and drums and musical instruments, all separated by superb carved rosettes and acanthus leaves. The most impressive majestic top crown is centered by its original mirror plate with intricately etched helmets, tied ribbons, laurel branches and the beautiful Artemis at the center framed within a most decorative foliate border. A mottled giltwood band extends around the mirror plate with a beautiful foliate band framing richly carved scrolled floral designs and berried laurel branches set on a patinated off white background with a lovely mottled giltwood band above. All original gilt, patina and mirror plates throughout.
