A stunning Italian 18th century Regence st. Louis XV period giltwood and Calacatta marble console. The freestanding console is raised by striking cabriole legs with elegant scrolled foliate feet, large acanthus leaves and beautiful richly carved seashell reserves above. Each leg is connected by a powerful scrolled 'X' shaped stretcher with a most impressive and finely detailed central floral reserve. The exceptional pierced scalloped shaped frieze is centered by a most decorative and uniquely shaped reserve with a smooth cabochon flanked by additional scrolled designs set on a lattice pattern and richly carved swaging floral garlands. Above is the beautiful original Calacatta marble top with a lovely scalloped shape and a fine mottled border.
