A unique and most decorative Italian 18th century Scagliola and Wrought Iron coffee table, circa 1723. This artistic and most interesting rectangular coffee table is raised by a Wrought Iron frame with crossing and scrolling designs on both sides. The top displays faux Lapis Lazuli marble as the background and an array of musical and game-play figures. The intricately detailed top showcases various game cards, dice, a string instrument, a script containing a composer, and various other artist elements. This most creative coffee table is in amazing condition with its smooth and consistent finish throughout.
