A very handsome 18th century Italian walnut buffet from Tuscany with all original patinated iron hardware. The buffet with cut angled sides is raised by a mottled trim base, with a central decorative scalloped frieze. Above are four doors which are decorated the same with rectangular raised panels, concave corners and mottled edge, all with a central circular iron pull. All the doors are flanked by a vertical rectangular recessed panel. A central drawer above is decorated the same with iron pulls flanked by square recessed panels and mottled trim. Inside lay the original shelves. All warm and extremely rich patina throughout.
