A sensational Italian 19th century Baroque giltwood and marble coffee table.

The table is raised by impressive and most decorative scrolled foliate supports with mottled block feet. Each support displays richly carved designs and wonderful foliate movements, joined by an X shaped stretcher with a central floral reserve. The stunning marble top displays a striking Lapis Lazuli central reserve framed within a fine white Carrara marble fillet. Leading outwards is the striking fossilized marble with additional white Carrara marble fillets and a fine Brocatelle d'Espagne marble border. All original gilt throughout.
