A beautiful and extremely decorative Italian 19th century Baroque st. ebonized Fruitwood, Oak, bone, and Tortoiseshell cabinet vitrine. The one door one drawer vitrine is raised by fine block supports with delicate intricately detailed scrolled foliate bone inlaid designs flanking the frieze decorated with additional exceptional scrolled foliate designs amidst superb dragons, satyr masks and mythological creatures separated by Tortoiseshell reserves. The door displays a glass pane framed within similar most decorative wonderfully executed bone inlaid designs and opens to reveal two shelves and the mirrored background. Each side also displays a glass pane while above is a drawer decorated with striking intricately detailed bone inlaid scenes and which opens to reveal its striking Oak interior. Above is the remarkable pierced top gallery with exceptional turned bone baluster shaped supports and block reserves with bone inlays and striking ball finials.
