A stunning and most decorative Italian 19th century Baroque st. giltwood and inlaid specimen marble side table. The table is raised by an elegant tripod shaped giltwood base with finely scrolled mottled legs adorned with charming richly carved blooming floral garlands flanking lovely lattice designs. The beautiful central support displays a fabulous array of finely detailed carvings with a reeded urn shape and fluted, beaded, and floral designs. Above is the exceptional and most decorative inlaid specimen marble top with Porphyry, Sienna, Brocatelle d'Espagne, Vert de Patricia, Grand Antique, Rouge Royal, and Sarrancolin marbles, to name but a few, in a lovely fish scale design set on a white Carrara marble background and framed within a richly carved mottled foliate giltwood border.
