A stunning and intricately detailed Italian 19th century Baroque st. Giltwood and Micro-Mosaic center table. This beautiful three legged Giltwood center table is raised by three 'C' scrolled foliate supports decorated by acanthus leaves, floral accents, and end with a seashell above a ball. Above the three supports is a triangular tier with a wonderful rose bud centrally placed inside the three scrolled and mottled edge Giltwood legs. The three legs support an exquisite central reserve of a pierced foliate scroll with a top finial. The unique apron is decorated by stunning floral vines and flowers below a mottle edge and Micro-Mosaic top. The top has nine famous Grand Tour sites which include St. Peter's Square in Vatican City, the Colosseum, the Temple of Vestia, the Pantheon, the Roman Forum, the Temple of Hercules, the Capitoline Hill, the Temple of Hadrian, and the Arch of Septimius Severus. Each intricate mosaic is finished with a Micro-Mosaic border and inlaid into the round black Belgian marble top.
