A striking Italian 19th century Baroque st. giltwood and Sarrancolin marble console. The wall mounted console is raised by elegant and extremely decorative cabriole legs with beautiful scrolled foliate feet with superb richly carved foliate and floral designs with fine mottled scrolled movements. The impressive scalloped shaped apron is centered by a remarkable large leaf in a rich satin and burnished finish flanked by additional scrolled elements and lovely foliate carvings also repeated at each side. Above is the original marble top with a fine double mottled border.
