An impressive and extremely decorative Italian 19th century Baroque st. giltwood mirror. The large scale oval mirror retains its original beveled mirror plate framed within an elegant mottled giltwood border. At the base is a beautiful richly carved pierced seashell reserve flanked by superb large scrolled acanthus leaves. Striking scrolled movements and reeded gadroon designs lead up the frame decorated with lovely finely detailed flowers and draped with swaging vines leading to impressive architectural pediment like designs. The top crown is centered by a remarkable richly carved seashell with richly carved flowers above. All original gilt throughout.
