A stunning and most impressive Italian 19th century Baroque st. Pietra Dura marble, Wrought Iron, and Giltwood coffee table. This attention grabbing rectangular table is raised by two separate Wrought Iron triangular bases. Each base contains three scrolling Wrought Iron legs connected by a circular stretched and supported on Giltwood ball feet. The absolutely gorgeous Pietra Dura marble top is centered by a circular band of White Carrara marble that encases a pair of overlapped stars of Rouge de Verone and Sienna marble atop a background of Rosso Levanto marble inside the band. On either side of the circular central reserve are pierced scrolling designed White Carrara marble figures that contain Verde marble inside. The remainder of this attractive Pietra Dura marble table has Rosso Levanto marble throughout with a fine outer edge of White Carrara marble.
