A stunning Italian 19th century white Carrara marble statue on its original Vert de Patricia marble revolving pedestal. The statue depicts a beautiful young girl consoling her baby brother after she has taken away a bird that he was playing with. The statue displays an elongated octagonal base with a fine mottled border. The young girl is seated on a wonderfully sculpted and intricately detailed tufted stool with beautiful richly sculpted tassels. She is dressed in a flowing night gown with her baby brother on her knee. The statue is raised on its original pedestal with an octagonal base, elegant fluted circular central support and rectangular display shelf. Wonderfully executed with fine attention to detail throughout.
