A unique and most decorative Italian 19th century ebony and bone inlaid side table. The table is raised by a square bullnose edge base with a geometric inlaid bone design, raised by bun feet. Above the base is a kneeling figure with one hand on his thigh and the other supporting the circular top. The top also with a bullnose border has an intricate scrolled foliate bone inlay flanked by a double line pattern, creating a geometric design. A very chic table with wonderful proportions.
