A charming and very elegant Italian 19th century Florentine st. Ebony and Pietra Dura marble box. The octagonal box is raised by an elegant stepped mottled base with highly detailed Pietra Dura plaques on all eight sides. The front, back, and both side plaques each display intricately detailed colorful flowers inlaid on a black Belgian marble background with a keyhole at the front. In addition, each of the four corner plaques have colorful birds atop a plum tree limb inlaid with a beautiful array of semi precious stones tastefully set within. The top also displays a stunning Pietra Dura plaque with a fine white Liliium flower which opens with bronze hinges to reveal the finished rich Mahogany interior.
