A stunning and most decorative Italian 19th century Florentine st. Giltwood and Pietra Dura marble tilt top side table. The table is raised by three scrolled legs with bottom scrolls and finely carved berried laurel vines atop. The central column supporting the top has a beaded and palmette shaped band. The circular top is edged with a mottled Giltwood band and egg and dart patterns along the upper edge while beautiful scrolling reserves are placed along the bottom. The tiltable top has a central inlaid Pietra Dura and Black Belgian marble plaque displaying an array of different marbles. The plaque depicts a bouquet of colorful blossomed and budded roses. The collection of roses showcases exquisite attention to detail with their accompanying foliage and thorns running up each stem. This table can be displayed as a piece of art by tilting the top upright as an easel by its original mechanical metal hardware.
