Square Top Dimensions: L: 38.75" D: 38.5"
