A striking Italian 19th century Genovese st. giltwood, crystal, and tole chandelier. The twelve arm chandelier is centered by a bottom crystal ball pendant below a lovely array of remarkable swaging crystal garlands. Each arm displays an elegantly scrolled design with fine candle cups and each is connected by additional swaging garlands with prism and teardrop shaped pendants. The giltwood central fut displays a most decorative mottled, baluster, and tapered shape with richly carved foliate and acanthus leaf designs, and two tiers to where delicate crystal garlands lead upwards and connect. The striking top crown displays beautiful spray with additional swaging crystal garlands and exceptional pressed metal reserves with a crystal at the center.
