A striking and high quality Italian 19th century giltwood and marble side table. The table is raised on an extremely decorative base with pierced scrolled designs and fine seashell feet. The circular base displays a beautiful stepped design with a carved beaded border. At the center is a wonderfully executed kneeling cherub draped in flowing fabric holding up the central column. Above is the original fitted marble top set within a fine mottled border with striking pierced scrolled foliate movements. With all original gilt throughout.
