A handsome Italian 19th century Baroque st. giltwood console. The console is raised by exceptional paw feet below uniquely scrolled legs decorated with richly carved bearded satyrs, lovely foliate designs, and connected by a concave stretcher with a fine mottle border. The deep arbalest shaped apron is centered by outstanding acanthus leaf carvings set on a lattice background below striking scrolled foliate designs flanking a family crest with a unique and most decorative central symbol. Above is the scallop shaped giltwood top with a lovely Les Oves designed carved border.
