A most decorative and extremely elegant Italian 19th century Louis XIV st. ebonized fruitwood and bone center table. The rectangular table is raised by square tapered legs with cut corners and fine topie shaped feet. Each leg displays a delicate inlaid bone fillet and is attached by a most decorative scalloped and curved shaped stretcher with an additional fine bone fillet centered by a striking topie shaped finial. Above each leg are inlaid bone reserves each depicting charming and intricately detailed scenes of mythological creatures. The straight frieze displays one richly decorated drawer at the front with beautiful inlaid bone floral, foliate and geometric patterns. The sides and back are decorated in the same manner. Above is a stunning central bone plaque depicting affluent personages dressed in period attire on a loggia framed within additional striking and wonderfully executed bone inlaid foliate, rinceaux and geometric designs.
