A stunning and extremely decorative Italian 19th century Louis XIV st. giltwood, gilt metal and crystal chandelier. The six arm sixteen light chandelier is centered by a charming richly carved bottom acorn finial and charming hand blown crystal pendant amidst lovely gilt metal sprays with prism shaped pendants. The beautiful giltwood central fut displays a most elegant shape decorated with a wonderful array of carved Les Oves, reeded and lovely foliate and acanthus leaf designs. The six lightly curved arms are adorned with superb swaging crystal garlands with additional prism shaped pendants leading to striking crystal floral bobeches and displaying concealed light bulbs facing upwards illuminating the central fut and emitting a beautiful warm glow. At the center are additional most decorative sprays leading upwards and hanging downwards adorned with remarkable crystal rosettes, additional crystal pendants and lovely swaging garlands also repeated at the top centering the top richly carved acorn finial.
