A most impressive and large scale Italian 19th century Louis XIV st. Venetian mirror. The original central mirror plate is framed within a stunning array of twisted hand blown glass fillets, stained glass mounted on mirror plates and foliate glass designs. The frame displays a giltwood which wraps around the entire border with a Greek key like design. The stunning top crown displays beautiful hand blown foliate movements with an exquisite central etched reserve of an elegant maiden below a majestic top crown. All original mirror plates finish throughout.
