An exceptional Italian 19th century Louis XV st. giltwood center table. The table is raised on elaborately scrolled cabriole legs accented with large scrolls and acanthus leaves. The legs are joined by a scrolled X stretcher centered by hexagon shaped base with an urn of prosperity. The impressive finely carved pierced frieze is decorated with opulent scrolls and acanthus leaves on all sides. The molded apron above supports the thick original Rosso Verona marble top. With all original gilt throughout.
