A striking Italian 19th century Louis XV st. giltwood side table. The unique and very decorative side table is raised by elegant S scrolled legs with fine acanthus leave carvings. The central fut, also adorned with large and detailed acanthus leaves leads up to the oval shaped top. The top is set under a piece of protective glass and displays an etched giltwood background with fine silver leaf reserves of rich floral designs, within colorful polychrome borders, surrounded by a mottled giltwood gallery.
