A most elegant Italian 19th century Louis XV st. giltwood and polychrome mirror. The original mirror plate is fitted within a beautiful and most decorative mottled frame with finely carved giltwood rosettes and lovely foliate movements set on a polychrome background. At the base are most decorative scrolled foliate feet with richly carved swaging floral garlands extending along the bottom. Above is the striking pierced top crown with a central finely detailed floral wreath with charming richly carved flowers flanked by swaging floral garlands. All original gilt and patina throughout.
