A beautiful and most decorative Italian 19th century Louis XV st. patinated wood and faux painted marble console. The wall mounted console is raised by a superb thick bottom tier with fluted designs at the concave front, a fine mottled band at the border, and a wonderfully executed faux painted marble top. Beautiful scrolled legs lead upwards with richly carved blooming flowers and impressive gadroon designs leading to charming finely detailed seashell reserves at the corners. The scalloped shaped apron displays additional charming carved blooming flowers and branches leading to the beautiful pierced central reserve. Above is the original wonderfully executed faux painted marble top with a delicate mottled border.
