An exceptional and most decorative Italian 19th century Louis XV st. Walnut and Fruitwood center table. This high quality circular table is raised on casters leading up three supports to the triangular tapered central column with concave sides and rich Fruitwood inlays of palmettes and foliate patterns bordering a charming personage. The apron showcases intricate elongated Fruitwood Rinceau inlays below the mottled edge top. Above is the sunburst veneered Walnut top with wonderful Fruitwood inlays of the same foliate patterns and figures.
