A stunning and most elegant Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. Alabaster urn/centerpiece. This wonderful urn is raised by a square Alabaster base supporting a circular socle decorated with foliate carvings and leading up to the gadrooned neck. The body of the urn features carved ram's heads linked by swags of ribbon and is centered by delightfully tied bow. A mottled band accents the bottom of the tapered neck which is finished with stepped bezel and gadrooned rim.
