A striking and most decorative Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood and faux painted marble console. The freestanding console is raised by impressive circular tapered fluted legs and exceptional topie shaped foliate feet with superb square block reserves and beautiful curved foliate top caps. The apron displays a stunning array of most decorative and finely detailed foliate designs with striking finely detailed rosettes flanked by alternating floral designs below a berried laurel band. Above is the wonderfully executed faux painted green marble top. All original gilt throughout.
