A striking Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. double framed giltwood mirror. The rectangular mirror retains all of its original mirror plates with the central one set within a lovely tied reeded band. The outer borders display a unique and most decorative branch like design decorated with charming richly carved wrapped floral garlands leading upwards. The impressive pierced top crown is centered by the urn of prosperity with lovely flowers growing out of the top and flanked by charming finely detailed love birds perched on superb scrolled foliate elements amidst floral branches. All original gilt throughout.
