A beautiful Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. ebony, bone and Pietra Dura marble side table. The table is raised by three elegant legs with handsome hoof feet. The baluster shaped central support displays richly carved most elegant acanthus leaves and a fluted design. The top displays a very decorative scalloped apron with a fine bone inlaid wrap around fillet. Above are intricately inlaid floral and foliate bone inlays and bone cameos of renowned inventors and artists. At the center is an exceptional and most charming Pietra Dura marble inlaid flower on a black Belgian marble background.
