A superb and most elegant Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. Mahogany, giltwood, and Bleu Turquin marble console. The freestanding console is raised by slender square tapered legs with unique and most decorative feet, and charming richly carved berried laurel giltwood designs at the top. Above each leg are beautiful finely detailed rosettes flanking stunning swaging berried laurel and blooming flower garlands that extend along the straight apron and curved sides above a fine mottled giltwood band. Above is the original Bleu Turquin marble top.
