A unique and extremely elegant Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and silvered bronze large scale lady's vanity mirror. The mirror is raised by two richly chased ormolu scrolled bamboo designed supports with foliate accents, and one fold out stand at the rear. Framing the original mirror plate is the extremely decorative silvered bronze with rich and detailed ormolu floral mounts. At the top crown is a striking ormolu urn and burnished cabochon amidst tied foliate movements that drape down each side.
