A most elegant Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated and giltwood center table. The table is raised by circular tapered patinated legs with fine topie shaped feet and beautiful giltwood fluted design and a most decorative reeded giltwood top cap. Above each leg are rich block rosettes while at the apron are richly carved foliate scrolls centering a seashell reserve and framed by a twisted and beaded giltwood border. Above is the original circular Vert Patricia marble top. All original gilt and patina throughout.
