A beautiful Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated, giltwood and marble center table. The table is raised by fine bun feet below elegant circular legs. Each leg displays beautiful carved giltwood foliate designs, cabochons and a striking scrolled foliate carved capital above. Each leg is connected by a scalloped X shape stretcher with a most decorative and finely carved central foliate reserve. Above is the stunning original marble top fitted within a scalloped shaped double mottled patinated and giltwood border.
