An impressive Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. polychrome, giltwood and black Belgian marble console. The console is raised by elegant topie shaped feet below striking block reserves. Each circular tapered black polychrome leg displays beautiful giltwood foliate accents and lovely swaging garlands. Each leg is connected by an exceptional and most decorative turned stretcher with superb reeded designs and a stunning central urn with the eternal flame and tied swaging garlands. Above each leg are charming rosettes flanking richly carved scrolled foliate designs and a satyr mask at the straight frieze. Above the egg and dart giltwood band is the black Belgian marble top with a triple mottled border.
