A beautiful Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. Tulipwood and inlaid wood side table. The oval table is raised by elegant slender square tapered legs with lovely inlaid foliate designs. Above each leg are fine block reserves with wonderful carved scrolled designs flanking lovely most decorative scrolled foliate designs extending along the frieze. The top displays stunning intricately detailed reserves of a charming lyre and flute at the center framed within an exceptional foliate band and other beautiful urns with foliate designs separated by column like designs all framed within a remarkable wrap around foliate band with superb pyrograved accents.
