A handsome and large scale Italian 19th century Louis XVI St. white Carrara marble urn. This most impressive urn is raised by a square base below the circular socle pedestal. The body of the urn is decorated with a wonderfully detailed central reserve of a pan flute and two trumpets tied together with knotted ribbons. The ribbons wrap around the urn and end with frilled bows below the sumptuously detailed scrolled and raised arms. Both arms gracefully arch up to frame the fixed lid which is topped with a finial.
